

To our dear valued customers,

State of Emergency Declaration

Following the declaration of state of emergency by the Japanese government on January 7th, please find below Chez Vous' updated policies regarding the services.

◇ Business activity

Chez Vous will continue providing its services and customer support while following the state of emergency situation and policies.

◇ Service Provision

Unless there is any inconvenience, the services will be provided following the regular schedule for each of our clients. If either the client or the staff feel uncomfortable with the situation, we will ask for the other party's understanding. May it be the staff, Chez Vous will work on alternative solution.

◇ Concerning our staff

Regardless of whether it is at work or in private, we ask our staff to not forget the usual measures: "avoiding the 3 C's", "washing hands, gargle, disinfecting hands", "wearing a mask", "temperature measurement", "utilizing ventilation", "securing social distance", etc. and to refrain from going out as much as possible.

Kindly please contact us if you or a person living with you are returning from overseas.

Until we can confirm the safety conditions, we will need to suspend services for two weeks from date of arrival in Japan.

May the policies or situation change, we might renew our measures as well.

We thank you very much for your kind cooperation.
